About this document

This document is a one-stop reference guide for frequently called numbers, websites and other important AT&T benefits contact information. It is designed to help you find information quickly and easily. See the “Requests for copies of documents” section for more information on how to obtain a copy of this document.

Information you need to know to use this document

AT&T offers a wide variety of benefits, employee discounts and other programs. You may not be eligible to participate in every program listed in this document. Eligibility to participate in a program depends on certain factors, such as your:

- Employment status (for example, active or eligible former employee).
- Job title classification (for example, bargained or management).
- Employing company.
- Service history (for example, hire date, termination date or Term of Employment – also known as Net Credited Service or NCS).

To understand what Programs apply to you, you will need to know the preceding information. The AT&T Benefits Center can provide these details. See the “Eligibility for Health and Welfare Benefits Programs” section for more information on how to contact the AT&T Benefits Center.
Important: Please verify your eligibility for (or participation in) a program before taking any action.

Benefit eligibility for employees classified as nonmanagement nonunion (NMNU) employees varies by employing company and type of benefit. If you are uncertain whether you should receive management or bargained benefits, call the AT&T Benefits Center at 877-722-0020 to determine your job title classification. See the “How Do I Look Up a Contact?” section for more information on how to look up a contact.

See the Appendix for a list of employee benefits plans and programs for which this document applies.

Important: Legacy AT&T means AT&T Corp. and its subsidiaries before the merger with SBC Communications Inc. Legacy BellSouth means BellSouth Corporation and its subsidiaries before the merger with AT&T Inc. Legacy SBC means subsidiaries of SBC Communications Inc. before the merger with AT&T Corp. A name change of the subsidiary you work for or retired from does not affect what legacy group of companies it belongs.
Agent for service of process

This section of the document only applies to ERISA plans. See the Appendix for more details.

If you wish to bring a legal action concerning your right to participate in a plan or your right to receive any benefits under a plan (or any of its programs), you must first file a claim for benefits and go through the ERISA claim and appeal process. A legal action should not be filed until you complete the claim and appeal process. Legal action involving a plan should be filed directly against the plan and served at the address below:

CT Corporation
350 North St. Paul St.
Dallas, TX 75201

If you have a signed authorization to release information or a subpoena request for production, you must fax the request to the AT&T Subpoena Processing Center.

Fax: 877-971-6093
Available 24 hours a day

Important: For additional information regarding authorizations to release information or subpoena requests, call 800-291-4952, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Central time.
How do I look up a contact?

It’s simple. See this section any time you need contact information for employee benefits, discounts or other programs. Here’s how:

- Determine the factors that describe what kind of employee you are. See the “Information You Need to Know to Use This Document” section for more information.
- Find the type of benefit, employee discount or other program — e.g., medical, prescription drugs or commuter.
- Find the administrator for your employee group.

Important: If you do not see your employee group listed, call the administrator at the beginning of the section.

- Under the administrator for your employee group, you will find available websites, telephone numbers, hours of operation and mailing addresses.

Example: Assume you are a manager who retired in 2005. You live in Florida and have questions about your wireline voice discount.

Find the “Employee and Retiree Discounts & Offers” section.

See the “Active Employees and Retirees Who Receive Discounts on an AT&T Bill” under the “Account Support – U-Verse, High-Speed Internet, Wireline and DIRECTV” heading, and call the AT&T Employee and Retiree Sales and Service Center at 877-377-9010, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Central time.

Beneficiary designations, Death and Survivor benefits

Fidelity Service Center

Call the Fidelity Service Center to report the death of an employee, an eligible former employee, an inactive employee and/or an eligible dependent, or ask questions about beneficiary designations. (If you have submitted an AT&T Beneficiary Designation to the Fidelity Service Center, service associates will be able to answer questions regarding the designation that you have on file.) Many benefits plans and programs allow you to designate a beneficiary. Although you are not required to update your beneficiary designation, it is recommended that you do so when certain life events occur (for example, getting married or divorced, having or adopting a child, or losing a loved one).

You may manage your beneficiary designations via the AT&T Online Beneficiary tool. (Note: Some eligible former employees and former vested employees may need to call the Fidelity Service Center for further assistance.)

If you have not completed an AT&T Beneficiary Designation, or if you wish to change your current beneficiary designation on file:

- You may create, update, print or request an AT&T Beneficiary Designation through Fidelity’s NetBenefits website at netbenefits.com/att. You may also go to the Quick Reference section of the OneStop home page at onestop.web.att.com (from work), or access.att.com (from home). Click on B, and then click Beneficiary Designation (online). Eligible former employees may also go to the Benefits section of access.att.com. Click on Your Finances, and then click Beneficiary Designation. All beneficiary designations made using the Online Beneficiary tool will be available for future viewing and updating at your convenience.

- Please note that in some cases you may have to print your AT&T Beneficiary Designation, gather additional signatures, and then return the form before your AT&T Beneficiary Designation is valid (for example, in cases for which spousal consent is required by the applicable benefit plan). Please follow the prompts for when a printed form must be returned to the Fidelity Service Center.

- Quick and easy! Update your beneficiary designation online at netbenefits.com/att.

You may request an AT&T Beneficiary Designation Form through the Fidelity Service Center. An AT&T Beneficiary Designation Form will be mailed to you within three business days.

Benefits not specifically listed

If you would like to request information for all other programs, employee and retiree discounts and offers, or plans, please contact the particular administrator listed in the “Contact Information for AT&T Benefits Administrators” section for more information.

Fully-insured options

To request an Evidence of Coverage of the provisions of a Fully-Insured Option in which you are enrolled, contact the Fully-Insured Option administrator directly. The AT&T Benefits Center can provide contact information. See the “Eligibility for Health and Welfare Benefits Plans” section for more information on how to contact the AT&T Benefits Center.

Bargaining agreements

To request a copy of the collective bargaining agreement that covers you, please go to the OneStop home page and select Labor Relations in the Tools & Resources section in the right navigation bar, contact your immediate supervisor, or write to the address in the “Official Plan Documents” section.

Official plan documents

To request copies of ERISA plan documents — or other documents under which an ERISA plan is established or operated — you must send your request in writing to the following address:

AT&T Services, Inc.
Attn: Plan Documents
P.O. Box 132160
Dallas, TX 75313-2160
Filing claims and appeals

This section only applies to ERISA plans. See the Appendix for more details.

Unless your provider submits the claim for you, or the applicable claims administrator allows you to call to initiate a claim for benefits, claims for benefits must be mailed to the applicable claims administrator for the plan in which you are enrolled at the addresses listed in this section. However, urgent care medical claims that require expedited action may be initiated by calling the number for your claims administrator listed in this section.

If your claim is denied, ERISA requires you to exhaust administrative remedies, including filing an appeal of the claim denial before you initiate external review, if applicable, or commence a lawsuit. Some claims administrators have a different address to file an appeal of a denied claim. If so, the appeal address is also listed in this section. If an external review is available, information regarding how to request the review will be provided along with the denial of your appeal.

Administrative remedies are considered to be exhausted either when your appeal is denied or when the claims administrator fails to issue a decision on your appeal before the end of the time frames described in the applicable SPD or SMM.

To file a written claim or a written appeal of a denied claim for benefits, use the appropriate address in this section.
