Rethink Possible

4,031 reasons our communities are improving

Dear Friends,

AT&T New Hampshire would like to take a moment to congratulate employees who have just earned the prestigious 2014 President's Volunteer Service Award.

We appreciate the dedication and many hours of service that our AT&T New Hampshire employees put into our community to make it a better place to live.

Sincerely,

Patricia Jacobs

4,031 reasons our communities are improving

Impacting a community can take many forms. It can mean mentoring a student online in science and math each week, cleaning up a city that has recently been impacted by a natural disaster, or traveling overseas to meet the needs of people in a country far away.

AT&T congratulates and thanks employee volunteers.

Over time, these moments of giving can add up to millions of service hours.

This month, we recognize 4,031 AT&T employees who are being recognized by President Obama for their outstanding service to their communities. These volunteers will receive the President's Volunteer Service Award (PVSA), a prestigious honor awarded annually by the President of the United States in recognition of sustained volunteer service.

To earn the national honor, these employees volunteered more than 100 hours during 2013. Some volunteered more than 500 hours to receive the Gold Award.

In New Hampshire, we'd like to congratulate our honoree:

Raymond Whitley

AT&T PVSA 2014 recipients and thank them for their commitment to improving the communities where they live and work.

We would like to congratulate all of our

We congratulate
