

New York

AT&T has invested in our New York communications networks, our people and local communities for 132 years.

building for tomorrow

More than $1.4 billion

invested by AT&T in its best-in-class wired and wireless networks in New York from 2013-2015.

1,538

upgrades made in 2013-2015 including new cell sites, addition of wireless and wired network capacity and new broadband network connections in New York.¹

99.8 percent

of population in New York covered by the AT&T Mobile Broadband network as of April 29, 2016.

99.8 percent

of population in New York covered by the AT&T Wireless network as of April 29, 2016.

1,856

Wi-Fi hotspots in New York as of July 5, 2016.

community impact

4,571 students

mentored by our employees in New York through Aspire Mentoring Academy in 2015.

More Than 18,800 hours of personal time given by AT&T employees and retirees in New York to community outreach activities in 2015 – worth approximately $435,000.*

More than $15.5 million

contributed by AT&T, the AT&T Foundation and our employees from 2012 - 2014 through giving programs in New York.

environmental impact

38

alternative fuel vehicles operated in New York as of June 30, 2016.

jobs and economic support

More than 3,800

AT&T employees working in New York as of June 30, 2016.

More than $6.8 billion

spent on goods and services purchased from suppliers based in New York in 2014. This spending supports jobs and economic activity in the state.

4,158

AT&T retirees living in New York as of June 30, 2016.

666

retail locations in New York, including our company-owned retail stores, authorized dealerships and national retail stores as of July 8, 2016.

More than $434 million

generated in local and state taxes by AT&T operations in New York in 2014.

Approximately 85

veterans working for AT&T in New York as of April 30, 2016.²

Please visit <http://newyork.att.com> for more information.

¹All network upgrades exclude LTE enhancements.

²NOTE: The number of veteran employees is calculated from those who have self-identified as veterans. Since identifying as a veteran is voluntary, there may be more veterans than the number shown.

*The financial equivalent is based on the annual industry standards from Independent Sector.

